

University of Tennessee - Knoxville
Department of Earth & Planetary Sciences

FALL 2017 KLEPSEK SEMINAR SERIES
Thursday, 3:40 pm, Strong Hall Bldg. - Lecture Hall B001

Date	Speaker, Affiliation (Host)	Title
24 Aug	FIRST WEEK OF CLASSES – NO SEMINAR
31 Aug	Leslie Chang-Jantz , McClung Museum at University of Tennessee (Bauer)	“Inspiring Future Generations: the Role of Specialized Volunteers at the McClung Museum”
7 Sep	Vishnu Reddy , University of Arizona (Emery)	“Is asteroid (16) Psyche exposed core of a protoplanet?”
14 Sep	Bruce Fouke , University of Illinois (Engel)	“Kidney stones: A product of dynamic interaction between the microbiome and mineral precipitation”
21 Sep	John Encarnacion , Saint Louis University (Martin)	“Conversion of an oceanic spreading center to a subduction zone”
28 Sep	Michael Taylor , University of Kansas (Jessup)	“Extending Tibet and the High Himalaya – Implications for landscape development, the internally drained Tibetan plateau, and the Indus River”
5 Oct	FALL BREAK – NO SEMINAR
12 Oct	† Scott Anderson , BGC Engineering Inc. (McKay)	“Solid as a rock: How engineering geology relates to transportation asset management”
19 Oct	Cheryl McKenna Neuman , Trent University (Burr)	“Experimental Geomorphology: What wind tunnels can teach us about aeolian transport”
26 Oct	GSA WEEK – NO SEMINAR
2 Nov	Steven Forman , Baylor University (McKay/Ramsey)	“Eolian deposition and the South American Monsoon past 50 ka, western Pampas, Argentina”
9 Nov	Student Presentations (GEOL 596)
16 Nov	Student Presentations (GEOL 596)
23 Nov	THANKSGIVING – NO SEMINAR
30 Nov	Student Presentations (GEOL 596)

† 2017 Jahns Distinguished Lecturer in Applied Geochemistry sponsored by Association of Environmental & Engineering Geologists